

Pride Players

Project #19

A theatre troupe of Omaha-area high school students telling the stories of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and ally youth.

PFLAG Omaha, Proud Horizons and The Gay Lesbian Straight Education Network (GLSEN Omaha) cordially invite you this special benefit performance.

7:00 pm
Sunday, January 28, 2018
The Rose Theater
2001 Farnam Street

PFLAG Omaha, Proud Horizons, and GLSEN Omaha have a common theme to their missions: Protecting and supporting young people who happen to be lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer or questioning.

PFLAG holds monthly support and education meetings for LGBTQ individuals, their families and friends. Additionally, we conduct diversity presentations and trainings to college classes, school districts, law enforcement, corporations, community groups and organizations and other audiences 60+ times each year. Your support will help us maintain reference materials and other literature used for presentations.

Proud Horizons, sponsored by Heartland Pride, holds weekly support meetings for LGBTQ young people and straight allies—giving them a safe place to discuss issues they are facing with their families and at their schools. Your support will help us maintain program materials, meeting space, guest speakers, and other support programs for the youth.

GLSEN supports more than a dozen Gay Straight Alliances led by teacher advisers at Omaha area high schools. Those GSAs serve as sanctuaries for LGBTQ youth whose real or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression often means they must endure bullying and harassment. GLSEN also provides professional development to pre-service and in-service educators, administrators and youth-serving professionals in metro area school districts. Your support will help us continue to offer grants to GSAs that fund school programs that support our issues and provide education for allies.

We would also welcome any additional contributions to this annual Pride Players benefit that you would like make.
